St. Johns on the Lake does not provide transportation to or from Bear Island. Visitors are responsible for making their own arrangements. In addition, the trails to the Church are rugged and can be challenging for some individuals. By participating in this activity, you hereby acknowledge and agree that there are inherent risks of personal injury, illness, or property damage. You hereby assume full responsibility for all such risks and release, indemnify, and otherwise hold harmless St. John's-on-the-Lake from any and all claims or liabilities arising out of your participation.

I have read and agree to abide to the rules and conditions set forth in this application and the St. John's-on-the-Lake website for Special Ceremonies.
